

CONFERENCE PAKUKORE: POVERTY BY DESIGN

ADDRESSING SYSTEMIC CAUSES OF POVERTY & OPTIONS FOR CHANGE

21–23 NOVEMBER 2024

Victoria University of Wellington Te Herenga Waka

Rutherford House,
Pipitea Campus

THIS CONFERENCE

will be the first in New Zealand to analyse the interconnected web of economic, governmental, legal and institutional systems that have locked in poverty, and asks whether a developed nation should continue to tolerate it.

THE PROGRAMME

will be structured around the systems that underpin and maintain the crisis of poverty: economic management; housing; health; welfare; education; courts and corrections; short-term political thinking.

SPEAKERS

from research backgrounds and the front lines will provide evidence, present joined-up thinking and examine where hope lies for eradicating poverty and assisting those who suffer its harms.

Confirmed speakers include: Tracey McIntosh, Craig Rennie, Murray Edridge, Max Rashbrooke, Maria English, Philippa Howden-Chapman, Hana O'Regan, Sarah-Jane Paine, Jennie Smeaton, Bernard Hickey.
